

NASCAR & MLS HIGHLIGHTS

Playoffs are in full swing for Discount Tire across NASCAR and Major League Soccer. Ryan Blaney's run for a third straight Championship appearance came down to the wire, while Austin Cindric and the No. 2 Ford Dark Horse head to Phoenix to close out a strong season. On the pitch, all six of our MLS clubs are in the postseason—each chasing their own shot at bringing home the Cup.

NASCAR

Last week, Ryan Blaney put on a heroic show in the Discount Tire No. 12 Ford Dark Horse, almost clinching a third straight NASCAR Cup Series Championship appearance and chasing a fourth consecutive title for Team Penske. While he just missed out, it was still a fantastic season for both our No. 2 and No. 12 Discount Tire cars. And hey, you can catch Austin Cindric racing at Phoenix Raceway this Sunday—or even meet him in person on Thursday at 5 p.m. at our AZP 64 store.

MLS

All six of our sponsored MLS teams are in the playoffs! Chicago Fire and Portland Timbers advanced with wildcard wins, while Nashville SC and Inter Miami—an MLS Cup favorite—are battling it out. The Seattle Sounders, fresh off their Leagues Cup title, are eyeing another deep run, and FC Cincinnati remains a perennial threat. Tune in on Apple TV to catch the action and see Discount Tire branding around the field.
